Through the Center for Excellence (CFE), individuals can earn specialized certifications through courses and programs led by decorated industry professional instructors. The learning programs developed at CFE encourage building and advancing skills throughout one's career and we are proud to add this new member to an elite group of successful participants.

The Center for Excellence empowers community-based healthcare providers to achieve the highest quality care, run efficient businesses, and grow their organizations through diverse learning solutions.

“CHAP accredits the organization; the Center for Excellence trains and certifies the people and programs,” states CHAP President & CEO, Nathan J. DeGodt. “ We saw the need for consistent and cost-effective performance-improving education and programs in community-based care.

The expectation of clinical excellence and growth continues to rise, and organizations need resources and education to compete. Investments in certified professionals build stronger teams that produce efficient quality and growth. The Center for Excellence trains, develops, and provides specialty certifications for you and your agency.”

CHAP has partnered with community-based healthcare organizations since 1965. More than 6,500 organizations trust CHAP to advance the highest quality of home and community-based care through its standards, accreditation, education, and research. CHAP has set the standard for high-quality healthcare, and the Center for Excellence maintains the same standard of excellence.

CHAP: Center for Excellence certifications demonstrate expertise and professional responsibility in addressing the many challenges operations, and business development professionals navigate daily.

About Community Health Accreditation Partner (CHAP)

CHAP is an independent, nonprofit organization accrediting providers of home and community-based care. Founded in 1965, CHAP was first to recognize the need for and value of home and community-based care standards and accreditation. As a Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS)-approved accrediting organization, CHAP surveys organizations providing home health, hospice, and home medical equipment services to establish if Medicare Conditions of Participation and DMEPOS Quality Standard are met and recommend certification to CMS. CHAP's purpose is to partner with organizations nationwide to advance quality in the delivery of care and services in the home and community.
